The Respondents

Motion for Extension

1. On August 6, 2007, the Palestinian Authority and the Palestine Liberation Organization filed a “Motion for the Postponement of the Date for Handing Down the Judgment” in which it was argued that the Petitioners in the opening motion in question had concealed from the Federal Court in Rhode Island the fact that an action had been filed against Iran in respect of the murder of the deceased, that the arguments of the Petitioners against Iran in the same action contradict their arguments against the Palestinian Authority and the Palestine Liberation Organization in Rhode Island, and that therefore the Palestinian Authority and the Palestine Liberation Organization had no intention of filing a motion with the Court in Rhode Island for the cancellation of the judgment with respect to the opening motion in the case at hand.

The Honorable Court has instructed the petitioners to respond to the motion for postponement by August 23, 2007.

2. In their response, the Petitioners will prove that the motion for postponement is based on patently false arguments: not only was the Court in Rhode Island well aware of the action against Iran, but it was also aware that the Palestinian Authority and the Palestine Liberation Organization at the time raised an argument before the Court—exactly as they are arguing now—that the arguments against Iran contradict the arguments against the Palestinian Authority and the Palestine Liberation Organization. The Court in Rhode Island was not convinced by this argument. Moreover: the action against Iran was denied (a fact that was omitted from the motion for postponement), after the Court that heard it determined that the murderers of Yaron Unger of blessed memory obtained weapons and money from sources outside Hamas—a determination that is completely in congruence, of course, with the arguments of the Petitioners in the action against the Palestinian Authority and the Palestine Liberation Organization.

The response of the Petitioners will also prove, based on an expert opinion from an expert in American law, that the chances that the judgment will be cancelled are negligible.

3. The problem is that, due to the summer vacation and prior commitments, and the relatively short notice, the expert will finalize his opinion only in approximately one week.
4. Therefore, the Honorable Court is requested to extend the date for filing the response of the Petitioners by one week, until August 30, 2007.
